The man whose life is a living anthem of praise to God never has to figure up how much he has in bank to find out whether he ought to look cheerful or not.

No man or woman with a sane mind and sound limbs ever prays the Lord's prayer from the heart who does not give more than twenty-five cents a year for missions.

The Reformed Church in 1898.

AT the opening of a new year is a fit time to take a look forward as well as backward, for what has taken place in the past cannot be changed, but the future may be improved upon by the past. The Reformed Church has a work before it for the new year. When we think of all the various interests that now claim attention it is simply marvelous. The church has many branches of operation, many parts which combine to make up the whole. What shall be done in this year depends on how well all these parts are joined in the work, and how well they are supported. See these avenues. Look at them. Here we have first of all our educational institutions, then our publication interests, then our missionary operations, also our church extension business, orphan homes, beside the demands that are upon us in the individual congregations, as well as the synodical and classical organizations. The church has a great work before it, and 1898 can be made a very prosperous year for all these interests if every one will but come up to the measure of his duty in supporting the work. The demands are upon us.

A New Year's Hero.

The Reformed Church points with a great degree of pride to our hero of the Reformation. He was a new year hero, because he was born January 1, 1484. Not many people celebrate their birthday on January 1st, but here is the hero of the Reformation in Switzerland and the martyr of Cappel, whose life was full of good deeds, whose advent into this world happened on New Year's day. It would be time well spent at the opening of this year for the members of the Reformed Church to study the life and work of Ulric Zwingli.

A New Year's Prayer.

Along the ever-rolling tide
Our little barks unceasing glide,
Without a sail, without an oar,
To yonder vast eternal shore.

Almighty Savior, help and save,
Or we must perish in the wave;
Our Pilot and our Captain be,
While we commit our all to thee.

For all thy care in former days
Accept our feeble hymn of praise;
And fix our anchor, as we sail,
Of glorious hope, within the veil.

Safe past the rocks and shoals of time,
Conduct us to a purer clime;
And when we reach the port of bliss
We'll sing a nobler song than this.

I look upon death to be as necessary to our constitution as sleep. We shall rise refreshed in the morning.—Franklin.

"The good die young," said the casual caller, apropos of any old thing. "They may if they are chickens," said the editor, "but if they are jokes they do not."—Truth.

"Papa," said an inquisitive boy, "don't fishes have legs?" "They do not," answered papa. "Why don't they, papa?" "Because fishes swim and don't require legs." Then he asked, "Papa, ducks have legs, don't they?" "Why, yes, ducks have legs." "Well, ducks swim, don't they?" "Yes." "Then why don't fishes have legs, if ducks do? Or why don't ducks not have any legs, if fishes don't?" Papa gave up.—Exchange.

The solemnity of religion attaches to character, not to death. States of soul are solemn things. The question, What principles rule you? is a solemn question. But death, the disrobing of the flesh, is not peculiarly so,—not any more so than all life is, not any more than any crisis-season of life is which shows you what you are, and makes you taste the quality and sediment of your disposition and love.—Starr King.

GRACE REFORMED CHURCH, CHICAGO, ILL.

THE first work done in establishing an English Mission in Chicago that was effective, was a preliminary canvass by Dr. Fouse, Superintendent of Missions. The present missionary, Rev. J. M. Kendig, was commissioned by the Board in April, 1893, and he proceeded immediately to his field. The mission was organized December 3, 1893. The Sunday-school work began a month earlier. A lot was bought by the Board, April 23, 1894. The corner-stone was laid August 16, 1896. The first service in the new church was held July 4, 1897, and the building dedicated August 1, 1897. The cost of the lot was $8,775, and of the chapel, including furniture, pews, furnace, carpet and gas-fitting $9,000. The architect of chapel is George O. Garnsey, Chicago, Ill.

The Sesqui-Centennial.

The past year was memorable in the history of the Reformed Church because it celebrated the 150th anniversary of the organization of the first synod. This took place on the 29th of September, 1747, at Philadelphia, Pa. It marked the beginning of our church in this country under its own government and laws. One hundred and fifty years' history is a very evident token of God's presence with His people, especially when we had made such commendable progress; not in gathering great numbers so much, as in laying a good foundation for others to build upon. In that first cœtus were only four ministers: Rev. Michael Schlatter, Rev. John Philip Boehm, Rev. George Michael Weiss, and Rev. Rieger. There were twenty-seven elders present from twelve charges. This constituted the first synod. All that the Reformed Church is today has grown out of the first cœtus; and today we look back with devout gratitude for what has been done, believing this honorable history will prove a mighty inspiration to make more honorable the unwritten history which is yet to be made by our church.

To Them Be Honor. A Sesqui-Centennial Tribute.

BY HERMAN S. REICHARD.

When first from out the heights of Switzerland
The thunders pealed across the valleys deep,
And valiant Zwingli drew his sword for right,
Then broke upon the hearts of men a light
That long was held within monastic keep
Bound down by popish rule and priestly hand.

Its flame was answered like the signal fires
That leap from peak to cliff across the glens;
So went the precious light of liberty,
Adown the years, through age and century,
Made clearer by the consecrated pens
Of godly men, our worthy, noble sires.

We love the men who bore across the sea
The precious truth and yet more precious light;
The men who dared to plant in foreign land
The blessed gospel of the Son of Man;
And who, while living, fought the goodly fight
Which, after death, enriched posterity.

'Tis but their due, that we should give them praise,
And hold their memories dear through passing years,
For those who trod unbroken wilderness
To give to men the glorious blessedness
Of our own faith, oft sown in bitter tears,
Deserve the church's love through endless days.

"Wait thou on God" is one of the church's most necessary lessons. How few of us can be quiet before God, can take time to be holy, can really wait for God to accomplish his purpose in us. Some of the richest and deepest things wait for revelation to that man who can really wait on God.

REFORMED CHURCH, NEW BREMEN, O.

READERS of the ALMANAC will find on this page a picture of the new church building of the Reformed congregation at New Bremen, O. This congregation was organized by nine families in March, 1865, for the purpose of having the doctrines of Jesus Christ preached in their purity, unadulterated. At first the congregation was independent, then later for a short time united with the Evangelical Synod, but in the year 1873 united with Heidelberg Classis, and so became a member of the Reformed Church. Immediately after organization, the small congregation bought a house, suitable for a parsonage and began the erection of a house of worship. The latter was dedicated free of debt in the year of organization. In the year 1890, a lot more centrally located was bought. At the yearly meeting on the 2nd of March, 1896, it was resolved to build a new church on the eastern portion of the lot. Committees were appointed and the work begun. On the 12th of July, 1896, the corner-stone was laid, and on the 21st of February, 1897, the new edifice was dedicated to the service of the triune God. Both acts being performed by the pator loci. The building is 59x89½ ft. The interior consists of, first an auditorium, 43x58 ft. in which are placed 259 chairs; second, a Sunday-school room 28½x32 ft., and third a class-room 12x22 ft. By raising the rolling partitions, the three rooms can be thrown into one, wherein 500 persons can easily be seated. The rooms are nicely frescoed, heated by means of two furnaces, lighted by gas and also arranged to be lighted by electricity. The glass in the windows is fine cathedral glass. The cost of the building is about $10,250, nearly all of which is paid or covered by subscriptions. The pastors who have served this congregation are:

Rev. L. Richter from March, 1865, to April, 1868; Rev. A. Eisenhauer from spring of 1868 to spring of 1870; Rev. L. Richter from fall of 1870 to March 1873; Rev. Wm. Dieckmann from May 1873 to December 1887; Rev. M. Vitz from March 1, 1888 to November 1, 1895; Rev. W. E. Shaley from December 1, 1895 to ———

The congregation has 164 members and a Sunday-school of 140 members; a Young People's Society, a Woman's Missionary Society and a Children's Society are all flourishing and doing much good. May the work redound to the praise of God and the salvation of men.

There are some who desire to know with the sole purpose that they may know, and it is curiosity; and some who desire to know that they may be known, and it is base ambition; and some who desire to know that they may sell their knowledge for wealth and honor, and it is base avarice; but there are some, also, who desire to know that they may be edified, and it is prudence; and some who desire to know that they may help others, and it is charity.

The man who finds most fault with the Bible is probably the one who has made the least trial of it in his life. If we test its principles by our practice, we shall find them true and constant.

Whenever any man believes that God has given him a work to do, that belief becomes the great motive of his labor. It does not exclude the others; but it overshadows and, as it were, includes them. Still the man may find the work delightful, and may expect from it a great result; but, when you ask him why he does it, he rises from his happy toil, and points back to where God stands beside the gate, and says, "He sent me." However he might love the work, whatever advantage he might look for from it, he would have no right to be doing it if God had not seen him.—Phillips Brooks.

The Home Missionary Work.

THE Reformed Church believes in missionary work and is therefore diligent in extending this branch of church activity. The missions now under the care of the Mission Board are scattered far and wide over this country. During the past year much difficulty was experienced in supporting the work as it should have been. The present year promises something better, and it is the hope of the Board that a general improvement may be noticed in the support of the work. As the Lord has abundantly blessed the country with good crops, good prices and an increase in the industries of the country, there should be a corresponding increase in liberality. The church must awake to the possible future which the Lord has opened before it. A neglect to avail itself of these opportunities will result in dwarfing the work. What is needed in this work is more men and money, and this can be best acquired where there is a willing mind and a liberal heart.

Nothing great can be accomplished without arduous exertion and a resolute purpose.

An Easter Bush.

They had just come to the pretty home which papa had bought in the South. They had intended to start by the 1st of March, but it took so long to sell out and pack up that they did not reach their new home till Easter.

Papa was expecting them, and the house was all in order and the dinner cooking when he brought them in. And there was so much to see and so much to say!

Allen and Maurice rushed out to look at the big cactus. Mary and Rose hurried off to pick an orange apiece from their own trees. They had been eating oranges all the way, but this was quite a different matter.

They couldn't think of dinner till they had seen all the wonderful things that grew on the place. There were the fig and olive and orange and lemon-trees, and the guava bushes, and the queer loquats that bloom in December and ripen in May.

At last, in one corner of the lot, they found a little tree with the queerest fruit of all. It was oval, not so big as your fist, and all ringed and streaked and splashed with different colors.

"There," said papa. "I call this an Easter bush. What do you think of it?"

Allen and Maurice took a good look, and then winked at each other, and waited to see what the little girls would say. Mary felt of it, and looked doubtfully at mamma. Rose the youngest of all, walked up and picked one, and looked at the place where it had been glued on.

"What is it, pet?" asked papa.

"Well," said Rose, slowly, "I should fink it's hen fruit!"

And then they all laughed, and began to gather Easter eggs for dinner.

Christ living and reigning forever is the guaranty of our living and reigning forever with him also. "I give unto them eternal life." "He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Easter lifts the veil between us and death, and permits us to see and to know as much as it is good for us to see and know of the mystery of life beyond the grave. It permits us to see Christ coming out of the grave, an assurance that we also who believe in him shall live forever.

ZION'S REFORMED CHURCH, YORK, PA.

THE accompanying cut is a good picture of the Zion's Reformed Church, of the mother Reformed congregation of York, Pa. Early in the 1730's even before York county was organized there was preaching in this place by Reformed ministers. The first church was a log building, erected in 1746, on the plot of ground where the present building stands, and was donated by the Penns in the year 1733. In 1763 the log building was replaced by a stone structure, which was used for services until July 5, 1797, when it was destroyed by fire. The corner-stone of the present building was laid on the 19th of June, 1798, under Rev. Daniel Wagner's second pastorate. This building is still used. Its central tower and open belfry adorn its low solid walls with exquisite symmetry. The steeple

My life is not what I would have chosen. I often long for quiet, for reading and for thought. It seems to me to be very paradise to be able to read, to think, go deep into things, gather the glorious riches of intellectual culture. . . . God has forbidden it in his providence. I must spend hours in receiving people who wish to speak to me about all manner of trifles; must reply to letters about nothing; must engage in public work on everything; employ my life on what seems uncongenial, vanishing, temporary, waste. Yet God knows me better than I know myself. He knows my gifts, my powers, my failings and weaknesses; what I can do and what not do.

REV. MORGAN A. PETERS,

which stands at the rear of the church was repaired last year at an expense of several hundred dollars. During the session of the Continental Congress in York, many of the then prominent men attended services in the old stone building which was destroyed by fire, July 5, 1797. For many years there was a graveyard back of the church, and among its many dead were the remains of Col. Philip Livingston, a representative from the State of New York, and one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. His tombstone can plainly be seen in the accompanying cut.

Following is a list of the ministers who have been serving the people at this mother Reformed Church of York and vicinity for over one hundred and fifty years: Jacob Lischey, 1745-1760; John Conrad Wirtz, 1762-1763; Rev. Wirtz died September 21, 1763, and his remains were buried under the altar of the second church building. William Otterbein, 1765-1774; Daniel Wagner, 1774-1786; Philip Stock and Geo. Trolldenier served as supply from 1786-1793; Daniel Wagner, (second pastorate), 1793-1804; Geo. Geistweit, 1804-1820; Lewis Mayer, 1821-1825; James Ross Reily, 1827-1831; Daniel Zacharias, assistant to Rev. Reily, 1828-1830; John Cares, 1832-1843; died April 5, 1843; Herman Douglas, 1843-1845; William A. Good, (Rev. James I. Good's father), 1845-1851; Rev. Philips acted as assistant to Rev. Good; David Bossler, 1852-1862; Daniel Ziegler, 1862-1875; Aaron Spangler, 1875-1886; O. P. Schellhamer, 1887-1894; Morgan A. Peters, 1894-

The first charter issued to this old congregation was issued by Gov. Simon Snyder, January 7, 1809, at Lancaster, Pa. The steady increase of the Sunday-school under the present pastorate compelled the congregation to erect a larger room and during the past year a new Sunday-school room was erected to accommodate 1,000.

The present pastor, Morgan A. Peters, was born in Lehigh County, Pa., on the 4th day of March, 1864. He is a graduate in the classical course of Ursinus College and of Heidelberg Seminary. He was licensed May 22, 1891. His first charge was Weissport and East Mauch Chunk, Pa., where he commenced his labors July 1, 1891. Soon after the charge was divided and each congregation constituted a charge. Rev. Peters received a call from each of the congregations; he accepted the call from the East Mauch Chunk charge, and labored faithfully with these people until March 31, 1894, when he resigned to accept the pastorate of Zion's Reformed Church, York, Pa. During his pastorate at East Mauch Chunk, the Reformed Church at that place was erected. During his pastorate at York, 193 members have been added to the church and nearly 300 to the Sunday-school.

March 27, 1894, he was married to Miss Emma Jane Graver, the only daughter of ex-burgess Charles Graver and wife, of East Mauch Chunk, Pa. She was a prominent member of his first parish.

Nothing is easier than to complain, yet in almost every community are to be found some who have a conspicuous genius for complaining. We have heard of no one, however, who would take the prize for this over a woman whose pastor asked after her health, to which she replied dolefully, "I feel very well, but I always feel bad when I feel well because I know I'm going to feel worse afterwards."

ZION'S REFORMED CHURCH, POLAND, IND.

IT was in the year 1837, when the first German pioneers settled in the neighborhood of Poland, Ind. It required much patience, labor and the grace of God to establish a spiritual and an earthly home. In 1840 Rev. G. H. Zumpe came to Poland to break the bread of life unto these settlers. He became their regular pastor and ministered unto them until 1866 with the exception of a short time when he labored at Evansville, Ind. Since then the following served the congregation: Revs. P. Joeris, A. Gekeler, Wm. Grether, and the present pastor, Rev. H. H. Kattmann, since May 1895. At first, services were held in private houses.

In 1843 a log church was erected, the cost of which in cash amounted to $25. The house itself as well as pulpit and pews were of a primitive nature. Meanwhile the financial condition of the congregation grew better, and the membership increased, so that the log church could not accommodate all, and it was decided to substitute a frame building which was erected in 1854 at the cost of $925. Many a one was added to the congregation during the thirty-five years the frame church served the people, but it grew old and since it needed repairs and also being too small to accommodate the attendance, it was decided to erect a larger one, the picture of which the reader may view. It was built in 1889 and as to size it measures 42x66 ft., and the total cost in round numbers is $6,000.

"O Lord of hosts, whose glory fills
The bounds of the eternal hills.
And yet vouchsafes in Christian lands,
To dwell in temples made with hands."

Anniversary of Schlatter's Marriage.

It is one hundred and fifty-one years since the formal organization of a synod in the Reformed Church, and while Rev. Michael Schlatter was laying the foundations of a spiritual household, he also wisely planned for the beginning of a family and home of his own. He was married October 11, 1747, to Miss Maria Henrica Schleidorn, daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Schleidorn, of New York. Mr. Schleidorn was a prominent and wealthy merchant in New York. Mr. Schlatter frequently alludes to his companion in the tenderest manner, and shows that she had proved herself a "helpmeet" in his labors, and a true consolation amid his various trials and cares."

Joy is a prize unbought, and is freest, purest in its flow when it comes unsought. No getting into heaven as a place will compass it. You must carry it with you, else it is not there. You must have it in you, as the music of a well-ordered soul, the fire of a holy purpose, the welling up out of the central depths of eternal springs that hide their waters there.—H. Bushnell.

REV. J. H. STEELE, D. D.,

Pastor of Grace Reformed Church, Tiffin, O.

REV. JAMES H. STEELE, D. D., was born on a farm near Massillon, O., October 6, 1853, son of John S. Steele and his wife, Margaret M. He was married to Miss E. Allie Chapman, whose home was near Navarre, Stark Co., O. To them were born three children, James C., John W. and Mary E. He graduated from Heidelberg College, 1876, and from the Seminary, 1878. His first pastoral charge was in Ashland county, O., which he served for nearly nine years. His next charge was in Greene county, O., and from there he accepted a call to Grace Reformed Church, Tiffin, O., in the winter of 1895. He has been honored with a number of responsible positions. He is secretary of the Board of Regents of Heidelberg University, secretary and treasurer of the Board of Education of Ohio Synod and the Board of Visitors. Also president of Seneca county Sunday-school Association, and treasurer of Seneca County Bible Society. He has served Grace Reformed Church very faithfully and acceptably, and is building up the various departments of the same.

Church Extension.

So far as the extension work is concerned, as a distinctive department of the missionary operations of the church, there can be nothing more important and far-reaching. The history of these operations, however, is short. About twenty years of the past embraces the period of active operations. Work along these lines had been done all along the history of our church, but not in a systematic way, so as to be a strong force in the upbuilding of the church. The fifteen years just past have witnessed a great advance along the lines of Church Extension in our church. This has been the active period—those going before were rather the periods of theorizing and preparation. The Eastern Board began active missionary operations twenty-five years ago, but the extension work, as a somewhat separate work, has a much shorter period. The General Board, in its unified operations, began mission work in good earnest in the spring of 1889, but not until the autumn of 1890 did it begin to set in operation the extension work as a department of the missionary work. When the board did undertake the work, it had to borrow the money with which to buy the first lot for one of its missions. The beginning was certainly a very humble one, but the growth of the work for the seven years past, has been such that every member of the church must feel gratified with it. Perhaps at no time in the history of our church were her opportunities for extension more flattering than now. We lament over past failures and lost opportunities. We have reason for it. But it is not a question of the past, but of the present and the future. No matter what we have lost in the past, the future is full of hope for the active church. The large cities and many country districts invite us. To do the work successfully we must, like other denominations, have a good extension fund for the purchase of lots and the erection of chapels. Without such a fund the work cannot be done. The past fourteen years tell us what can be done even with a limited fund, as compared with no fund, for a hundred years before.—Tidings.

Some people find it difficult to co-operate with others, even in Christian work, because of their manner or temper; but if our fellow-workers mean well and are good at bottom, let us overlook those things. In most cases, if we knew what they were feeling, we would be sorry for, and not angry with, people who are cross. "If we know that any one is ill, how considerate we become. Nothing is grudged. Everything is done that can be thought of. They are spared all possible annoyance or irritation. But why then only? How much better it would be if we were always as kind and considerate."

REV. H. M. HERMAN,

Pastor of First Reformed Church, Miamisburg, O.

REV. H. M. HERMAN was born in Pequea, Lancaster county, Pa., March 20, 1834. Attended the public schools and having passed through the High School of Lancaster City, entered Franklin and Marshall College from which he graduated, A. D. 1860. Studied theology at Mercersburg, was licensed by the Classis of Clarion, Pa., and ordained by the Classis of Miami, February 26, 1862. Was married to Miss Bella D. Orr, of Lawsonham, Pa., April 10, 1862. The degree of M. A. was conferred by Franklin and Marshall College and that of D. D. by Heidelberg University. Has served two following charges: West Alexandria from November 1861 to August 17, 1881, and the First Church of Miamisburg from September 1, 1881, to the present time. The following is a review of the work done in the churches. Served many years as a member of the Board of Regents of Heidelberg University and on other Boards of the church and three years a member of the Board of Education in Miamisburg.

During the pastorate in the West Alexandria charge from December 1861 to August 1881, he preached 2,811 sermons, delivered 900 lectures, received 558 members into the church, married 232 couples, attended 457 funerals, baptized 327 children, instructed 484 catechumens and made 13,000 pastoral visits. Benevolence contributed by the charge nearly $13,000. In the First Church of Miamisburg the pastorate beginning September 1, 1881, until September 1, 1897, a period of sixteen years. Preached 3,316 sermons, delivered 821 lectures and 26 public addresses; made 11,654 pastoral visits, attended 385 funerals, received 395 members into full communion with the church, instructed 295 catechumens, married 191 couples, baptized 296 children. Began the pastorate at Miamisburg with 124 communicants and there are now 452. The beginning of the seventeenth year is full of promise.

Our Ministerial Ranks.

The Reformed Church has now a ministerial list of over one thousand. Twenty of our faithful servants were called away during the past year. As near as could be ascertained fifty-one were ordained, beside the licentiates, many of whom are serving regularly. The number of congregations last year was 1,665 and with some new organizations may now be 1,700. This gives us one minister to every  $1\frac{7}{10}$  congregations, showing that our work is well provided for so far as the supplying of our churches is concerned, and we have one minister to about every 230 members of the church, or one to every 139 communicants, and one pastor to every 174 Sunday-school scholars. This looks to be a well supplied army. The people cannot complain of neglect as to pastoral oversight. Our churches should do more faithful service because of this fact. The amount of apportionment to each member being less than one dollar, should make it an easy matter for these pastors to raise. On an average only 230 people to see during the year should not overtax any pastor even should he personally look after all the benevolent contributions of the church. With a well equipped army of ministers much should be accomplished this year.

Christ's sufferings and death were a startling revelation of the monstrous sinfulness of sin. His resurrection and ascension were a wonderful manifestation of his grandeur and glory.

Sin rejoices in companionship. Once it has defiled one man, it seeks to gather others into the same society. And no man is so terribly lonesome as he who is shut off from man and from God by his sin.

FALCKNER SWAMP REFORMED CHURCH.

THIS church is located in Montgomery Co., Pa., and was one of the first Reformed Churches in this country, as the congregation was organized some time previous to the year 1720, as in that year the first church was erected. The first building was log and was built by all the people making the greatest sacrifices. The first pastor of this congregation was the Rev. John Philip Boehm. He came to America and to this part of Pennsylvania no later than the year 1720, and commenced his career as a "schoolmaster." Soon he was appointed "reader," and served this congregation, with a few others, in performing ministerial duties. In this capacity he labored successfully for a period of about three years, and to the great satisfaction of the people of the congregation. It was no doubt through his efforts mainly that this church was established. After Boehm, it seems from 1746 to 1748, this congregation was served by Rev. Michael Schlatter, who at that time resided in Philadelphia. In 1748 Rev. John Philip Leydich became pastor.

Rev. Leydich was a very worthy pastor. The congregation grew steadily. During his pastorate a school house was erected on the church grounds, and when in 1754 a movement was started by wealthy and pious persons of London, which had for its object the opening of schools in the German settlements of Pennsylvania for the purpose of teaching the English language and spreading the Protestant religion, the congregations of Rev. Leydich and Rev. Dr. Muhlenberg sanctioned the project, and kindly offered the use of their large and newly built school-houses for the purpose. On October 28, 1754, the pastor, elders, and principal members of this congregation sent a petition to London urging the opening of the schools. This petition was signed by Rev. John Philip Leydich, Conrad Dotterer, John Mueller, and Frederick Reimer.

The Reformed and Lutheran congregations acted in perfect harmony in the matter.

There were suggested, as suitable persons to act as deputy trustees for the schools: Henry Kepner and Henry Kreps, Lutheran; Henry Antes and John Reifsnyder, Reformed; and John Potts and William Maugeridge, English. It is not certain whether this school was ever opened, but if it was, it existed but for a very limited time. Rev. Leydich labored in this congregation until 1765, a period of seventeen years. The same year Rev. Nicholas Pomp became pastor, but of his work very little is known except that he labored there until 1783, a period of eighteen years, and was a man of unusual talents. Rev. Frederick Dallicker served this church

Our deeds have an inescapable reflex influence; what we do helps to make us what we are. All our activities both manifest character and shape character; deeds are never trivial. You think, perhaps, that you may do many things now that you will not do by-and-by, and that these will have no permanent result in your future condition. It is a dangerous mistake. Many a young man indulges himself in "sowing wild oats" and forgets that every sowing has its harvest. They that sow the wind reap the whirlwind. The sins of youth are the seeds of many a grievous harvest reaped in old age with remorse and unavailing tears.

REV. G. W. ROTH,

from 1784 to 1799, fifteen years. He was very highly esteemed, and his remains are at rest in the church which he so faithfully served. In the beginning of his pastorate, the congregation, through some benevolent person, got to be the owner of a home with over one hundred acres of land. This property is located near Fagleysville, and is at present owned by Jos. F. Rhoads. Here Rev. Dallicker lived during the greater part of his pastorate at Swamp. It was during the pastorate of Rev. Dallicker in 1790 that the present brick church was erected. The dimensions of the building are 50x60 feet, with a gallery on three sides, an old wine glass pulpit with a large sounding board overhead on the north side, and is estimated to have had a seating capacity of about eight hundred. This was one of the most durable and beautiful church edifices of that time in this part of the country. Though we are unable to state the amount it cost to erect this large structure at that time, it was evidently more than the congregation could easily bear. They had a severe struggle to raise the necessary funds. And it was on this account, that the work of erecting it was greatly retarded, and only brought to a successful completion after some extra efforts had been put forth. Rev. Frederick L. Herman D. D., was the next pastor about the year 1800. He was an able and earnest preacher of the Word, and labored hard for the upbuilding of the congregation. This congregation was served by him until 1834. He labored in the Reformed Church about sixty years during which time he baptized 8,555 persons, confirmed 4,600, married 2,600 couples, buried 2,280, and preached between 8,000 and 10,000 times. His successors were Rev. Andrew Hoffman until 1858; Rev. Robert A. Van Court from 1859 to 1866; Rev. L. J. Myers 1866 to 1887; Rev. Joseph D. Peters from 1888 to 1889; Rev. G. P. Fisher 1889 to 1892, and Rev. G. W. Roth the present pastor commenced his work November 1, 1892.

This congregation and church deserve a place in history because of the ancient landmarks which cluster about it. It was in this congregation that Rev. Benjamin Schneider, the well known Reformed missionary who labored in Syria more than a quarter of a century ago, was born. A brother still lives near this historic church.

Biographical Sketch.

Rev. G. W. Roth was born near Doylestown, Bucks county, Pa., October 17, 1843. In 1845 his parents moved to Hellertown, where he received a common school education and learned carriage smithing, at which trade he worked ten years earning money to go to college. During '62 and '63 he served nine months as a volunteer in the United States Army. He took a full course at Lancaster, Pa., graduating from Franklin and Marshall College in '73, and from the Theological Seminary in '76. He was ordained to the ministry in the Lower Tinicum Church, Bucks county, October 26, 1876. He served the following charges: Tinicum, in Bucks Co.; South Easton, Northampton Co.; Hamburg, Berks Co., and the present Swamp Amity, partly in Berks and partly in Montgomery Co. He was married May 20, 1880, to Miss Theresa Leith, of Leithsville, Pa.

Some Towns in Schlatter's Time.

THE year 1750 was memorable in the history of the Reformed Church because it was then that Schlatter went back to Holland to lay before the mother church the true condition of things in this country, and that he might appeal to them for such help as could be given. He speaks especially of some of the important towns in Pennsylvania at that time. He said Philadelphia had 2,300 houses, mostly of stone, New Castle 40 miles distant had 240 houses, Chester 120 houses, Germantown 250 houses, Lancaster 500 houses, York 190 houses and Reading 60 houses. The whole of Pennsylvania had 190,000 inhabitants, out of which 90,000 were German, and of these about 30,000 were of the Reformed faith. He had then only forty-six congregations which he organized into sixteen charges, and there were only five regular ministers to serve these. His appeal was for help and it was met by granting him six men, and money to prosecute his work.

When a church will adjourn a prayer-meeting to go to an ice cream festival, it is a pretty good sign that the fire is not burning very brightly on its altar.

Christmas Day.

Our Savior Christ was born
That we might have the rose without the thorn.
All through his desert life
He felt the thorns of human sin and strife;
His blessed feet were bare
To every hurting brier. He did not spare
One bleeding footstep on the way.
He came to trace for us, until the day
The cruel crown was pressed upon his brow,
That smiles upon us from his glory now.

He bids our desert way
Rejoice and blossom as the roses of today.
There is no hidden thorn
In his good gifts of grace. He would adorn
The lives that now are his alone
With brightness and beauty all his own.
Then praise the Lord who came on Christmas Day
To give the rose and take the thorns away.

The Chinese Almanac and Kitchen God.

At the New Year time every Chinese family buys a new paper kitchen god, which is their almanac. Up over his head is the calendar. It tells how many months there are in the year (sometimes twelve, sometimes thirteen). They paste this paper god upon the wall, over the kettle where the family food is made. His godship has a little shelf under him where the family can put offerings and incense. When they bring him home, that is called "inviting him."

On the last day of the year they suppose he will go back to heaven and tell the "Venerable Man of the Sky" (as the heathen call God) all they have done. They do not want the "Old Man of the Sky" to know all the naughty and wicked things they have said and done during the year. What is to be done? They buy a little piece of candy and stick the god's lips together. Now, it takes somebody as clever as our Chinese to stick a god's lips together so that he can easily get them open if he has anything nice to say, but finds them glued fast when he tries to tell the bad deeds done!

When they have gummed up the poor god's lips they take him down from the wall and burn him up. This is called "sending him to heaven."

THE "DANIEL STINE MEMORIAL HOME."

MYERSTOWN, PA., in the heart of the beautiful and fertile Lebanon valley, thirty-two miles east of Harrisburg, Pa., and on the line of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, is the location of the "Daniel Stine Memorial Home." The Home is the gift of Mrs. Linda S. Kaub, of Philadelphia, Pa., to the "Society for the Relief of Ministers and their Widows of the Reformed Church in the United States, and is to be a Home for aged ministers and their wives and the widows of ministers and also a retreat for ministers in impaired health, who need a season of rest. It is under the exclusive control of a board of managers, elected by the "Society for the Relief of Ministers and their Widows" and to which they report annually its condition and needs.

It has the unqualified endorsement and commendation of the General and District Synods, in which congregations and individuals are urgently asked for liberal contributions for its maintenance and support. If our country gratefully remembers the services of her soldiers by liberally pensioning them and providing for them homes, ought not the church in like manner provide for her disabled and needy ministers and their widows? The work of caring for these servants of the Lord, "which have borne the heat and burden of the day," is a sacred one and should appeal to everyone whether he be minister or layman. The Home is a large three storied building, convenient and well adapted to its purpose. The rooms are nearly all furnished and in readiness for use. The grounds are large, five acres in extent, well shaded with fruit, ornamental trees and shrubbery, making it an ideal place for the quiet and rest of the declining years of those who shall come under its care and protection. The officers of the Board of Managers of the Home are: Rev. J. David Miller, President, Duncannon, Pa., Rev. Wm. C. Schaeffer, Secretary, Chambersburg, Pa., Rev. Simon S. Miller, Treasurer and Superintendent, Myerstown, Pa.

Care for Our Orphans.

The Reformed Church has heeded the divine injunction to care for the orphans. No other interest of our church is better provided for. We have three institutions so located that all sections of our church can easily reach one or the other of these homes. We believe there is no cause that appeals more strongly to the hearts of the people than our orphanages. It is there the affections, sympathy and help of all who love Christ will naturally be turned. The fond parents, who are surrounded with their children cannot help but think of the helpless little ones without parents, who are left upon the charities of the people. Where is there a home of comfort that cannot turn to the orphaned little ones to share with them the necessities of life? Who can sit down to a sumptuous meal and not bear in mind that there are others whose lives are not so happy because of hunger and nakedness. It is the orphan that will appeal more strongly to the heart than any one else. It is right and proper that the church should well provide for those who are helpless and forsaken. As these homes are supported altogether by means of free-will offerings it becomes the church to care for them and to abundantly provide the means for their support.

The St. Paul Orphan Home at Butler, Pa., of which Rev. P. C. Prugh, D. D., is the superintendent, is beautifully located, and affords a place where the orphan children are most scrupulously protected and guarded in every respect. This home should not be forgotten.

REV. SIMON S. MILLER,

Superintendent Daniel Stine Memorial Home.

The Bethany Orphan Home at Womelsdorf, Pa., is just as worthy and is most pleasantly situated, so that the eastern portion of the church can abundantly provide for it. Rev. T. M. Yundt is the efficient and able superintendent, and makes it a real home for the orphan children.

Then at Ft. Wayne, Ind., is another home, presided over by Rev. John Rettig, so that in the West this home furnishes ample accommodation and is mostly supported by the German Synods. Remember that it is the duty to visit the orphans in their affliction and to care for them out of the bounty which God has bestowed upon you.

Society for the Relief of Ministers and their Widows of Reformed Church in the U. S.

This society as the outgrowth and successor of the "Widows' Fund," had its beginning as early as 1755, with the permission of the synods of North and South Holland. The classis of Amsterdam gave at one time as much as $1,400, which it is believed became the foundation of the present endowment fund. The society was formally organized in 1790 and with enlarged privileges was incorporated by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, March 26, 1810. Its purpose is to afford relief, according to its ability, to needy ministers who are members, and also to widows of ministers in need. In the past year fifteen ministers and twenty five widows were afforded help expending the sum of $2,400. More would be given the annuitants, if the income of the society were larger and the ability greater. The income of the society is from interest on the invested fund, collections in the churches and the gifts of ministers and generous laymen.

The privilege of membership extends to all ministers of the Reformed Church who by giving sixty-five dollars in one or more installments become life members, or five dollars initiation fee and three dollars annual dues become annual members.

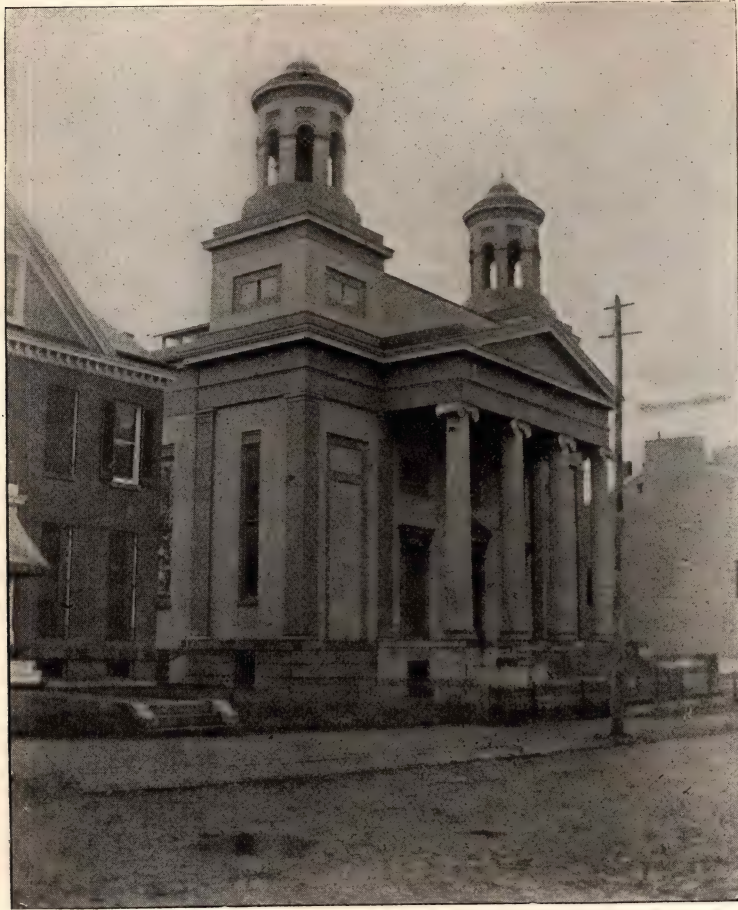

The society has the repeated endorsement of the General and District Synods and Classes and is for the whole church, knowing no east, west, north or south, no English or German, or any school of theological thought or ecclesiastical practice and hence appeals to the whole church challenging its favor and help in its noble work for the needy minister and widow.

Godliness consists not in a heart to intend to do the will of God, but in a heart to do it.

Peace is the sentinel of the soul, which keeps the heart and the mind of the Christian through Jesus Christ.—Huntington.

EVANGELICAL REFORMED CHURCH, FREDERICK, MD.

The congregation that worships here was organized prior to 1747 but did not have a settled pastor until 1753.

The succession of pastorates is as follows:

Rev. Theodore Frankenfeld . . . . .	1753-1755
Rev. John Conrad Steiner . . . . .	1756-1759
Rev. Philip Wm. Otterbein . . . . .	1760-1765
Rev. Carl Lange . . . . .	1766-1768
Rev. Frederick Lewis Henop . . . . .	1770-1784
Rev. John Wm. Runkel . . . . .	1784-1801
Rev. Daniel Wagner . . . . .	1802-1810
Rev. Jonathan Helfenstein . . . . .	1811-1828
Rev. John Henry Smaltz . . . . .	1829-1833
Rev. Charles Reighley . . . . .	1833-1835
Rev. Daniel Zacharias . . . . .	1835-1873
Rev. Edmund R. Eschbach . . . . .	1874-

Fredericktown was laid out in 1745. Prior to this the organization was called the "Church of the Monocacy," and was located some miles northeast of where Frederick now is.

The Second Church was built in Frederick in 1746-47, and was dedicated by Rev. Michael Schlatter.

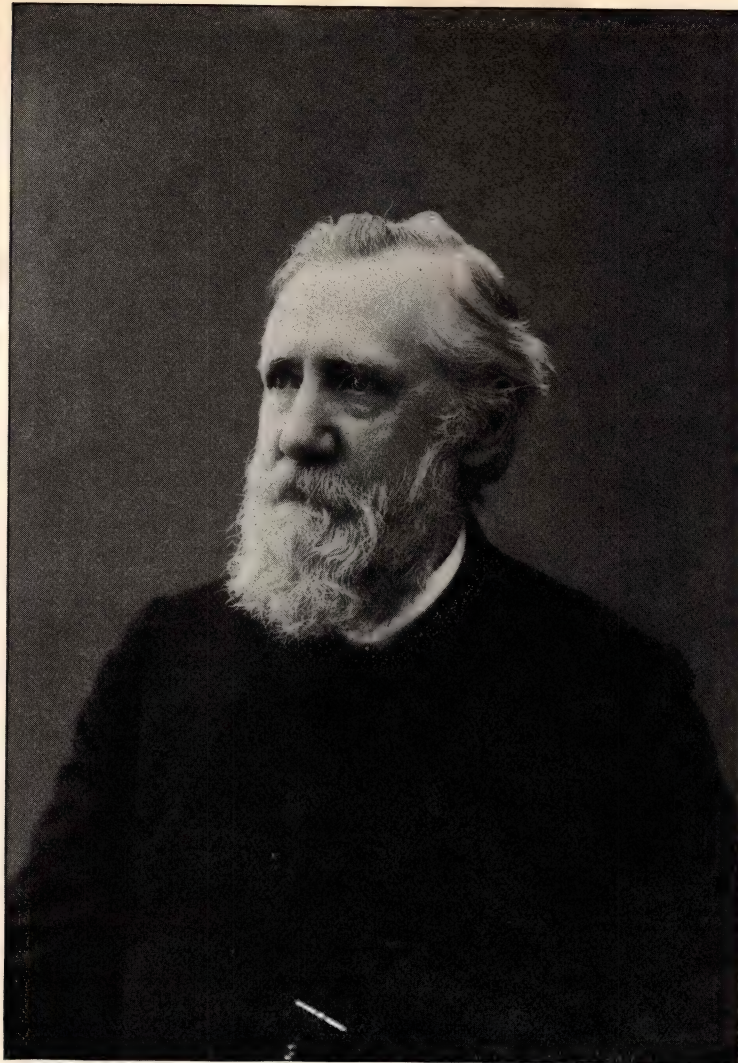

The Third Church was built during the pastorate of Rev. Otterbein, 1764, and had the first stone tower in Maryland. In 1807 this tower was surmounted by a spire of graceful architectural proportions. This tower and spire now form a part of Trinity Chapel, which was built on the site of the old church in 1881. Into this tower were placed a chime of ten bells in 1892.

The present church edifice on the opposite side of the street from the former one, was erected in 1850 during the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Zacharias.

It was reconstructed internally under the present pastorate in 1891, and is now one of the most attractive and comfortable church edifices in the state.

"Be kindly affectioned one to another." Paul means that Christians should treat each other with the same consideration that brothers and sisters should receive. "Kindly" means "kind-like," belonging to one's kindred.

Blessed is the man who has the gift of making friends; for it is one of God's best gifts. It involves many things; but above all, the power of going out of one's self, and seeing and appreciating whatever is noble and loving in another man.

REV. E. R. ESCHBACH, D. D.,
Pastor of Evangelical Reformed Church, Frederick, Ma.

The Reformed Church.

THE Reformed Church has a place in history such as few of the other protestant denominations share. It should be the pride of every Reformed member to cherish that history and the place we occupy. In the time of the Reformation there were two bodies, two branches, two factors, the one embodied in the Lutheran and the other in the Reformed branch of the church. It is a matter of special note that the name of our denomination is such as came forth from the principles of our faith. We are not founded on the body of a man but upon the principles which actuated men in a desire for religious freedom. The word Reformed is applied to our denomination because it stands for a principle. It is this that gave it birth and its growth and development has been along the line of a reformation in the life and spirit of the church. Whilst we have our hero to whom we point with a just degree of veneration, yet it sounds much better for us to be Reformed, than if we were known as Zwinglians. Let our people stand up as defenders of the faith, for in no denomination is there a better foundation for growth in all respects than in the Reformed Church. It encourages the effort to rise as the progress of the church goes on. Young men who look forward toward the ministry find here what is needed to stimulate to higher achievements.

GERMAN EVANGELICAL REFORMED CHURCH
NEW KNOXVILLE, O.

ABOUT fifty-eight years of history have been covered by the congregation at New Knoxville, O. The first church was built in 1840 while Rev. Kuckerman was pastor. For thirteen years they worshiped in this building and in 1853 erected a large and more modern frame church. This church became too small and they undertook the task of erecting the present beautiful edifice. On the 23d of July, 1893, the cornerstone was laid. The work progressed steadily until the 26th of August, 1894, the dedication took place. The church is 58 feet deep and 94 feet long, with a tower 125 feet high, with a clock and two bells in the same. The window in the one front is 12 feet wide and 36 feet high, set with opalescent glass. The main auditorium is 55x60 feet with gallery on three sides and the Sunday-school room 55x30 is connected with the main auditorium by folding doors. The heavy pews and all other furniture is of white oak. The fresco work is neat and pleasing to the eye. The whole makes the impression of being durable and substantial and is a credit to all connected with its erection. The cost of the church is $28,000 and was dedicated free of debt.

Extension Facts.

The Reformed Church has not availed itself of the work of church extension in past years as it should have done. There was no effort made to collect a fund for this purpose till but a comparatively few years ago. But to show how this work pays we give the facts as presented by those at the head of our church extension work. The facts will conclusively show what a benefit this work is and has been to the church in the short time it has been carried on. What we give here refers only to the work under the General Board. Be it remembered also that not until the spring of 1891, did the General Board have any available church extension money with which to do any work. Therefore remember that all here mentioned has been done within seven years. Be it remembered also that without the extension funds the congregations named could not have been successfully founded.

Christian Endeavor Data.

THERE are 454 Reformed Christian Endeavor Societies with a membership of about 17,000. The following societies have been added to the list, as published in the Year Book of 1897. Conyngham, Pa., (3), Bascom, O., Mt. Pleasant, Pa., (Jun.) Warren, O., (Jun.) Bancroft, O., Athens, Mich., Freeburg, Pa., Osnaburg, O., Lake (Millheim) O., Monroe, Pa., Huntington, Ind., Freeburg, Pa., (Jun.) Rockingham, Va., Keim, Pa., Alliance (Bethel), O., (Jun.) Robertsville, O., Vermillion, O., Columbus, O., (Jun.) Bluffton, Ind., (Jun.) Belvidere, Tenn., (2), Stroudsburg, Pa., Springfield, O., Marion, O., Sulphur Springs, O., Norristown, Pa., (Christ's), Canal Winchester, O., Ashland, Pa., Pittsburgh, Pa., (St. Mark's), Wilkinsburgh, Pa., (2), Edinburg, Pa., (Jun.) Harrisburg, Pa., (First), Mohican, O., Thornville, O., (Jun.) Leighton, Pa., Portland, Ore., Easton, Pa., (Third Church), Bath, Pa., Saxton, Pa., Woodcock Valley, Pa., Yellow Creek, Pa., Madison Township, Pa., Barren Hill (St. Peter's), Pa., Iron Bridge, Pa., Skippack, Pa., Millers-town, Pa., Butler, Pa., Turtle Creek, Pa., Wilkes-barre, Pa., Kimberton, Pa., Uwchland, Pa. Fifty-five new societies, with others unreported.

It is safe to assume that our societies give from six to eight thousand dollars a year to benevolence. We know of one that gives several hundred annually, and of a number giving from fifty to a hundred dollars.

Many of the societies complied with the request of our Christian Endeavor Missionary in Sendai, Rev. S. S. Snyder, last year, and invested several dollars through him in Japanese curios, which they sold at a good profit, and sent the proceeds to him to assist in paying for the new building for the Industrial Home. It is surprising what a large assortment of interesting things two dollars invested in this way will secure. All of our societies should try it.

Miss Lillie M. Rohrbaugh who entered the Japan field as a missionary teacher during the year, has been an Endeavor worker for some years. She and Missionary Snyder were both members of the society at Columbiana, O.

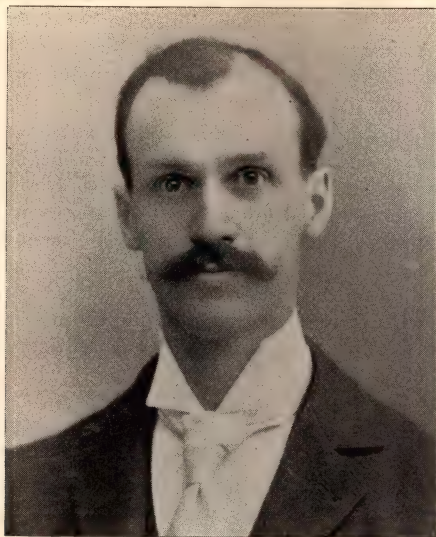

All persons knowing of societies, other than those here given, which have been organized during the year, are urgently requested to report them to Rev. J. H. Bomberger, D. D., 9 Circular street, Tiffin, O., that they may be entered upon the books. Pastors can secure Christian Endeavor literature by dropping a card to the same address.

Denominational loyalty is born of intelligent familiarity with denominational facts. By using the monthly denominational topics arranged by Rev. Rufus W. Miller, Reading, Pa., in connection with the united society topics, your members will be educated in denominational lore. Introduce them.

The next International Convention will be held in Nashville, Tenn., about the middle of July, 1898. The next Ohio State Convention goes to Mansfield, about the 1st of July, 1898.

No pastor can afford to do without this agency for shepherding, training and utilizing the young people of his parish.

Make your sermon search somebody's heart if you want it to be effective. If it gets no further than the mind it may satisfy, but it will not inspire; but to make it a heart-searcher it must have its origin in the heart. It must be fanned into a flame by the breath of prayer if it is to consume sin.

Our Work in Japan.

FEW people in the home church appreciate the extent and significance of our work in Japan. The center of the work is Sendai. This is the metropolis of north Japan. In this city is located the Tohoku Gakuin. This school is both collegiate and theological, covering altogether a course of ten years. Throughout the collegiate course (lower and higher) of seven years the English, German and Chinese languages, mathematics, the natural sciences, history, and the philosophical branches are taught. During the theological course the ordinary studies preparatory to the Christian ministry are pursued. The present number of students in the whole institution is 147. The number who have already graduated from the theological course is twenty-three. Five others for various reasons entered upon the work of preaching before graduation. These men, though not up to the standard of the ministry in America, nevertheless constitute a very important multiplication of the missionary force.

In Sendai is also located our Girls' School, called in Japanese Miyagi Jo Gakko. This school is a blessed agency for the spread of Christian influences among the women of Japan.

Some of the graduates go out as Bible-women; others become Christian wives and Christian mothers; all help directly or indirectly to establish the Christian homes which Japan so much needs. The present number of students enrolled in the school is fifty-nine.

Many of the students both of the Tohoku Gakuin and of the Girls' School are engaged in active Christian work. The work at nine or ten Sunday-schools in the city is done mainly by them. The students of the theological department also preach much in various parts of the city. There are fifty-three preaching stations—fifty-three places where the gospel is regularly preached. These points are grouped most thickly around Sendai. There are seven however in Tokyo and vicinity, 215 miles south of Sendai. There are eight west of the mountain range that extends north and south through the middle of the country, in the provinces of Fukushima, Yamagata and Akita, where so little Christian work has yet been done. There is one on the northeast coast, and there are seven on the northern island of Hokkaido, the farthest point being over 500 miles north of Sendai, so that our work is scattered over a territory 700 miles long and 100 miles wide.

At six of these fifty-three preaching stations there are organized congregations. It is a rule not to organize a company of believers into a church until they can support a native pastor and pay their current expenses. Seven of the stations are under the support and management of a committee of classis, consisting half of missionaries and half of Japanese. The remaining forty points are under the direct care of the mission. The whole number of ordained ministers connected with the work, including the six missionaries, is eighteen. Of this number eight are connected with the Tohoku Gakuin; the rest give their whole time to preaching. Unordained preachers, mostly licensed, there are twenty-nine. Of this number one is engaged in the Tohoku Gakuin.

The whole number of converts according to the latest statistics is 1935. This number of souls won for Christ represents the large amount of courage, self-sacrifice and patient heroism involved in living the Christian life in a heathen land. This number of Christians too represents an influence upon the communities in which they live that can not be measured. The significance of the work of the Reformed Church is by no means limited to the present extent of it. What has been accomplished under the blessing of God is a well-laid foundation for a still greater work in the future. The Tohoku Gakuin is turning out Christian preachers and Christian laymen every year. The Girls' School turns out its Bible-women. The number of equipped workers will increase yearly. The fifty-three preaching stations are all as a city set on a hill; they can not be hid; they will spread the rays of their influence farther and farther. In the natural course of events the work will grow.

REV. D. W. ALBRIGHT, Dec'd.

(See Necrology.)

The opportunity of the Reformed Church in north Japan is one of the greatest that has ever confronted any denomination in the history of foreign missions. The conversion of Japan will constitute an epoch in church history; it will be the beginning of a movement that will bring the hundreds of millions of Asia into the kingdom of God. The share of the Reformed Church in this victory, if she is faithful to her trust, will be great, and as one looks down the vista of time, the grand significance of her Japan work seems beyond calculation.

Why the Fathers of the Church Came to America.

In the articles written by Dr. Good we find some history which is worth preserving in a more permanent form than in the paper. We give part of one contribution to show how these fathers endured persecution for the cause of Christ.

Religious Persecution. We apprehend that this was the most important of the reasons why they came. Indeed, Mr. Schlatter says so in his "Appeal to the Churches." They had been suffering great persecutions. In 1688 the French had waged a relentless war against the Palatinate and ravaged it for many miles. They destroyed 200 villages and made 40,000 people homeless in mid-winter. Then in 1693 they came back again to complete the destruction of what was left. They shut up the Reformed people in the church of the Holy Ghost at Heidelberg and set it on fire, expecting to burn them up in an awful holocaust. They, however, let them out only to suffer worse than death. By these wars many of the Reformed Churches west of the Rhine were lost to the Reformed; and the French and the Catholics combined against them. Two hundred Reformed ministers were driven into exile. When at last the cruel war was over and the French gone, they turned themselves to their ruler, the Elector of the Palatinate, for help, but he, like the French, was a Catholic, and gave them no hope. On the contrary soon the Catholics began using the churches that had remained Reformed. They also compelled the Reformed to bow before the host when it was carried through the streets; they forbade them to work on Catholic holy days; they kept back the salaries of the Reformed ministers and school teachers, and the Reformed children would sometimes be driven by force to Catholic service. These things occurred, especially about the years 1705 and 1719.

At the last named period the Elector also took away from them their most prominent church, the Church of the Holy Ghost at Heidelberg, and forbade them to use their beloved Heidelberg Catechism. Through the interference of the Protestant princes he was compelled to stop these persecutions and give them back their rights, but still the Reformed felt unsafe. They did not know at what moment some new persecution would break out against them. They felt that they had not perfect liberty to worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences. (NOTE:—For full account of these persecutions see History of the Reformed Church by Rev. Jas. I. Good, D. D., pages 225–307.)

An illustration of these persecutions is given in a German paper published in Pennsylvania in 1744, thus: At Ginsheim, in the Palatinate, some of the Reformed people began to hold religious services together. Charges were brought against them and a commission was appointed to look into the matter. The Catholic rulers of the district harried the thing on. Before the commission, eighteen of them acknowledged that they had attended the religious meetings. They were, therefore, ordered to pay the expenses of the commission, 53 guilders, and also a fine of 285 guilders besides, and forbidden under penalty of one hundred dollars to hold any more services. All these things were clearly illegal, according to the laws of that country, for all abuses in Reformed congregations were to be first reported to the Reformed consistory at Heidelberg. But the Catholic magistrates at Ginsheim at once acted against them. The Reformed sent two men to the Reformed consistory at Heidelberg. They sent one of their inspectors to examine into the matter. He found them innocent, and the Reformed consistory asked the Elector to get the magistrates to return the money. But the Elector died and they never got anything back. Meanwhile the civil authorities had sold them completely out—their cattle and everything—and one of them had to stay in prison thirty-nine weeks.

Slifer's Church.

The history of Slifer's Union Evangelical Lutheran and Reformed Church near Farmersville, O., covers almost a century and is one among the oldest churches in the Miami Valley. Rev. Thomas Winters preached in this settlement in the early years of this century, preaching in schoolhouses, barns and private dwellings. In 1810 Philip Slifer deeded ground for a church and cemetery. In 1819 steps were taken for the erection of a log meeting house and in 1825 it was ready for dedication. Ever since the Lutheran and Reformed people have worshiped in perfect harmony. This log church served the people until 1858 when a brick structure was erected more modern in design. The congregations prospered and a more commodious building was needed, and on March 1, 1897, the present building was dedicated. This church is modern in all its appointments and cost in money, labor and material donated about $12,000. Among others the charge has been served by Rev. Thomas Winters, Rev. Kercher, Rev. P. C. Prugh, D. D., Rev. Geo. Long, Rev. Levi Rike, Rev. M. F. Frank, Rev. A. E. Baichly, Rev. B. F. Davis, Rev. C. E. Ewing.

Sabbath Observance.

THESE are two institutions without which no nation can grow great. They are the family and the Lord's Day. Both had a beginning in the Garden of Eden, and both are the basis of all social and religious life today. God's reason for imposing, under the Mosaic law, capital punishment for infidelity to the marriage relation and violation of the Sabbath, are grounded in nature. They are bred in bone and marrow. In both, Nature visits similar penalties upon society.

If Christians do not awake and insist upon their national and legal rights, the time will come when they will not have a fighting chance. The lawless will not leave us in possession of even what we now enjoy. They will encroach inch by inch and surrender nothing without a struggle. Much of the abuse that exists is due to the apathy of church people.

The department of Sabbath Observance has been incorporated in the constitution of the State Christian Endeavor Union. The appointment of Lord's Day Committees is earnestly urged upon all societies. The opportunity presents itself for young people everywhere to do definite work for Christ and the church. Reformed Christian Endeavor Societies should be prompt to take up this work. For literature and plans of work address the undersigned,

REV. L. B. C. LAHR, DELAWARE, O.,

MARTIN GROVE,

Superintendent of Mt. Olivet Sunday-school, North Lima, O.

Mr. Martin Grove, the present superintendent of the Mt. Olivet Sunday-school, North Lima, O., has been associated with the Sunday-school since childhood. After serving as teacher for several years he was elected as the superintendent of the school in 1872, and has been elected each ensuing year since. He has completed a quarter of a century of his superintendency, which event was celebrated with appropriate exercises on June 27, 1897. During his administration the school has greatly prospered and is in touch with all modern lines of progress. It is hoped that his life may be spared for many years to come, to continue his zealous Sunday-school work.

EDITORIAL STAFF OF THE REFORMED CHURCH SUNDAY-SCHOOL PERIODICALS.

Editorial Staff of our Sunday School Literature.

How much pleasure it is to look into the faces of those who furnish us the matter for our Sunday-school publications. The editors of our literature are inspiring factors in the study of the lessons, and what they say and write gives us a desire to see them face to face, but as it is impossible for all of us to meet them personally we gladly do the next best thing, and that is to give you the benefit of their pictures.

Rev. Rufus W. Miller, of Reading, Pa., all know is the General Secretary of the Sunday-school Board, and furnishes the editorial notes and other helpful suggestions for the Heidelberg Teacher. Under his very acceptable and energetic management the Sunday-school literature has been greatly improved and the Sunday-school work greatly enlarged and prospered.

Rev. Wm. C. Schaeffer, Ph. D., Chambersburg, Pa., is the new editor of the International Sunday-school Lessons, giving the expository and explanatory notes. Those who best know him recognize his ability and special adaptation to the task assigned him. Dr. Schaeffer is a highly cultured gentleman and will make his department thoroughly helpful to the study of the lessons.

Rev. E. Herbruck, D. D., Dayton, O. Professor of Church History in Heidelberg Theological Seminary at Tiffin, O., is a well chosen man for his place on the staff. He furnishes "Oriental Lesson Lights," and having made an extensive tour of the Holy Land and being specially interested in the study of Oriental life, both ancient and modern, gives him special fitness for the work he performs.

Rev. J. M. Bomberger, D. D., Tiffin, O. Professor of Practical Theology in Heidelberg Theological Seminary has also been wisely chosen to furnish "Suggestions for Teaching." We know of no one who is better qualified to throw out suggestions to teachers than is he. He is practical and theoretical and with his wide experience and thoroughly progressive spirit he will prove a decided inspiration to the study of the lesson.

Mrs. Katherine McCauley Miller, Reading, Pa., wife of Rev. Rufus W. Miller is peculiarly happy in her department. She furnishes "Teaching Hints for the Primary Department," and suggests illustrations for the blackboard.

All who have occasion to use the primary helps in the Heidelberg Teacher have already learned to value her work, and it will certainly not depreciate in interest during the present year.

Rev. R. L. Gerhart, D. D., Bellefonte, Pa., is the editor of the Leaves of Light and Sunshine. For a number of years he edited the Sunday-school Treasury and being so well qualified to furnish the very best matter for a Sunday-school paper, the Board have shown their wisdom in continuing him under the new arrangement. The Leaves of Light are brilliant and afford the Sunday-school all that could be desired in variety and freshness of matter. The Sunshine is just what is needed to illuminate the child-life with touching incidents and stories.

Mrs. Elizabeth Trebein Flynn, Trebein's, O., is also one of the editors of the Sunshine, giving the best of her brightest thoughts to the paper for the little ones. She is brilliant and has deserved recognition as one of the few who can wield the pen of a ready writer. Her choice was truly a happy one.

Miss Rebecca H. Schively, is the editress of The Intermediate Scholars' Quarterly. Having had a long experience in furnishing the lesson stories for Sunshine and the Primary Quarterly published for a number of years in Philadelphia, she is eminently qualified to have charge of this work. The Intermediate Scholars' Quarterly is equal to any publication of a like character in other churches. With such an able staff of editors for our Sunday-school literature the church can well afford to give the Board the most liberal patronage and support. The literature now ranks in every respect with the best, and no school is justified in going outside for such helps. It is a betrayal of prejudice, ignorance or narrowness for any one to ignore the present claims of our literature upon the church, and all who have become familiar with its present high character heartily endorse it.

NECROLOGY.

Ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States who have died during the year intervening between October 1, 1896, and October 1, 1897.

REV. JOSEPH G. SHOEMAKER was born August 15, 1828, at Friend's Cove, Bedford County, Pa. Died October 20, 1896, near Blackburn Station, Allegheny County, Pa., aged 68 years, 2 months and 5 days. Took partial course at Marshall College, and in 1854 began his theological course under Dr. P. Schaff, and Dr. B. Wolf. He was ordained to the ministry July 13, 1856, in the Curtsville Charge. He collected the money for Clarion Collegiate Institute, built two new churches, and a parsonage. After serving charge eighteen years, in 1874 he went to St. John's Mission, Reading, Pa. His health failed, and in 1875 he took the Aaronsburg Charge, and on November 1, 1879, he went to Emporia, Kan., and on January 1, 1881, he accepted a call from West Alexandria, O. January 1, 1885, he became pastor of the Red Bank Charge in Clarion County, Pa. On Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 1885, when he arose, with his mind on the sermon he was to preach, he was stricken with paralysis, and was disabled to the end of his life. He was a good sermonizer and preacher, and during his long affliction he enjoyed the active sympathy of his ministerial brethren.

REV. D. J. GREENWALD was born in Lehigh County, Pa., in 1854, died November 9, 1896, aged 42 years, 1 month and 16 days. He was baptized in infancy, confirmed in youth, and ordained to the ministry in 1876, after having received his literary and theological preparation at Heidelberg College and Seminary. His first and only charge was in northeastern Kansas, and consisted of the Fairview, Rattlesnake, and Grand Prairie congregations. This he served very acceptably and successfully for nearly eight years, until he was compelled to resign by severe affliction of the throat. He was compelled to seek other employment, and was twice elected Clerk of the Circuit Court of Mitchell County, Kan. He engaged for a while in mercantile business. In the spring of 1896 he moved with his family to Kansas City, Kansas, and in September to Bonner Springs, Kansas, where he is buried.

REV. OSWALD JOHN ACCOLA, D. D., was born November 26, 1835, in Sebenico, Dalmatia, a town on the shores of the Adriatic Sea. He died in Chicago, Ill., November 17, 1896, aged 60 years, 11 months, and 21 days. His father was of Swiss, and his mother of Italian parentage and birth. March 7, 1836, he was baptized, and later became a member of the Reformed Church. Came to America in 1850. Completed his education at Tiffin, O., and was ordained October 13, 1860, by St. Joseph Classis of the Ohio Synod. He was a year and one-half at Defiance, O., and in 1862 accepted a call from Ashford, Wis. Here he was three years, and after spending six months as a traveling missionary he went to Freeport, Ill., where he remained one and a half years. In May, 1867, he accepted a call from the German Church of Dayton, O., where he remained eighteen years. In 1886 he went to New Philadelphia, O., and remained till October, 1890; and the same fall he entered upon his work in Chicago, and in 1894 he resigned. Dr. Accola was a man of deep piety, of clear reasoning and a deep thinker.

The General Sunday School Work.

The Sunday School Board of the General Synod whose powers were greatly enlarged at the meeting of the General Synod held in Ohio, June 18, 1896, carries forward the general Sunday School work. There are four departments of the Board's work.

First. The Department of Statistics.

The new Statistical forms went into use the last year, and its value is evidenced by the fact that more reliable figures have been obtained than ever before. These indicate the greatest gain in Sunday School membership ever reported. The total Sunday School membership is 212,777. A gain of 3,811 officers and teachers, and of 14,413 scholars for the year.

Second. The Department of Sunday School and Missionary Work.

Here efforts are put forth to increase the Sunday School membership. To elevate the standard, and to advance the educational methods of our Sunday School. The Board also organizes new schools, and during the past year maintained such schools until they became congregations, at Cleveland, Ohio, Easton and Williamsport, Pa., and, at the present time the permanent Sunday School Missionary, Rev. J. C. Horning, is working at St. Louis, Mo. The offerings of Children's Day support this work. The Board makes a free grant of Children's Day Services to all Reformed Schools for this purpose.

Third. The Department of Instruction.

The creation of new Sunday School Literature is the aim of this department. Leaflets designed to help the work have been issued, as well as a full supply of Home Department Requisites. A number of editors are employed in connection with the various lesson helps and Sunday School papers published. The latest publication is the Heidelberg Sunday School Hand Book for 1898.

Fourth. The Department of Publication.

The Board now owns and publishes all of the Lesson Helps and Sunday School papers for the Reformed Church, its main office is at 1025 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and its Western Depository is The Reformed Publishing Company, Dayton, Ohio.

The officers of the Board are, President, Rev. C. Clever, D. D., Baltimore, Md.; Vice President, Rev. C. F. Kreite, Louisville, Ky.; Recording Secretary, Rev. D. B. Lady, Greenville, Pa.; Treasurer, Rev. J. H. Bomberger, D. D., Tiffin, Ohio.; Rev. Rufus W. Miller is the General Secretary who has general charge of the work and to whom all communications should be addressed.

Our Lesson Helps.

The lesson helps and Sunday School papers published for Reformed and Union schools have been greatly enlarged and improved for the year 1898.

The Heidelberg Teacher has been made a Monthly without increasing the subscription price. This is an invaluable aid to Bible students, teachers and officers of each school, including the primary teacher.

The Advanced Scholars' Quarterly has been enlarged eight pages making it now forty pages with cover each quarter.

The Intermediate Scholars' Quarterly for the younger scholars has been changed in form and also enlarged. This is well adapted for scholars between the ages of eight and thirteen.

The Heidelberg Picture Cards for the little ones have had a splendid sale, and are the finest and most appropriate helps upon the market for the children in the Primary Department.

The Heidelberg Lesson Roll contains the pictures given upon the Heidelberg Picture Cards in an enlarged form and is intended for the entire school.

The Advanced Scholars' Lesson Leaf is an abridged edition of the Advanced Scholars' Quarterly.

Not the least important of the new helps issued is the Church Festival Helper which gives quarterly suitable services for Christmas, Easter, Children's Day and Harvest Home or Rally Day.

The Reformed Church can be justly proud of its lesson writers. They are Rev. Wm. C. Schaeffer, Ph. D., Rev. J. H. Bomberger, D. D., Mrs. Katharine McCauley Miller, Rev. E. Herbruck, D. D., and Miss Rebecca H. Schively, and the Managing Editor of the Heidelberg Teacher, Rev. Rufus W. Miller.

Our Sunday School Papers.

The suggestive names of our Sunday School papers are Leaves of Light and Sunshine. These give pure and good literature for the young people and the children. They are silent messengers for good. Every school should circulate them.

Leaves of Light is a four page weekly, with a semi-monthly and a monthly edition. Intended for the young people. It is bright, sparkling, and contains brief items of Church news, biographical sketches, humorous hits, etc. It is splendidly illustrated.

Sunshine is an illustrated weekly for the Primary Department. It contains brief stories, and gives each week a story illustrating the Sunday School lesson. Send for sample copies and use them in your school.
